

CHRISTOPH LUDWIG LÖSCH

Born in Munich

CAREER:

Studies in Industrial Engineering (mechanics and machines) at Technical University of Berlin and Technical University of Darmstadt (1986-1991, M.Sc.),

Project engineer and technical consultant with Leistritz AG for product design and manufacturing methods for the automotive supply industry (1992-1993),

Legal education in the field of intellectual property with a patent law firm in Nuremberg, at the German Patent and Trademark Office and the German Federal Patent Court in Munich, Studies in general law with examination at the University of Hagen (1994-1996), Federal examination and registration as a patent and trademark attorney (1997),

Activities and experiences in patent law, trademark law, design law and unfair competition law before the German Patent- and Trademark Office, the European Patent Office (Munich), the European Union Intellectual Property Office (Alicante), the World Intellectual Property Organisation WIPO (Geneva) and district courts in Nuremberg, Munich and Duesseldorf with a patent law firm in Nuremberg (1997-1999)

foundation of Loesch Patentfirm (1999)

MEMBERSHIPS:

German Chamber of Patent Attorneys, Institute of Professional Representatives for the European Patent Office (epi), FICPI, German Intellectual Property Association (GRUR)

ADMISSIONS:

German patent and trademark attorney, European patent attorney, European trademark attorney, European design attorney, European Patent Litigator (UPC)

LANGUAGES:

German, English, French